Part 3 — Written Planning Note (15 min)

The curriculum writing task for Sessions 17–18: write a short note to a French contact about upcoming plans. Use 5–7 sentences.

Include all of the following at least once:

- ☐ aller + infinitif for a future plan

- ☐ devoir + infinitif for something you have to do
- ☐ vouloir + infinitif or pouvoir + infinitif
- ☐ At least 2 future time expressions
- ☐ A proposed activity together and a time/place

Example structure (use as a guide, not a template):

Salut Marie! Ce week-end, je vais rendre visite à mes parents en province. Mais la semaine prochaine, je suis libre. Je veux aller voir l'exposition au Grand Palais — tu veux venir? Je dois travailler lundi, mais mardi après-midi, je peux. On se retrouve devant le musée à 15h? Dis-moi si ça marche pour toi!

Write your note below (or on a separate sheet):

Part 4 — Speaking Practice (5 min out loud)

Read your planning note aloud THREE times.

- First time: read from your notes
- Second time: glance at notes only for vocabulary
- Third time: say it without notes

On the third try, aim for the whole note from memory. This is the level you'll need for the Week 9 formative check.

Part 5 — Role Play Preparation (5 min)

The Week 9 formative check will include a planning exchange. Prepare by writing a 6-line script:

- Line 1 (A): Propose a plan. Tu veux [activity] [time]?
- Line 2 (B): Decline with a reason. Je veux bien, mais je dois...
- Line 3 (A): Suggest an alternative. Et [alternative time], tu peux?
- Line 4 (B): Accept or modify. Oui, [alternative] ça marche! / Non, je dois aussi...
- Line 5 (A): Confirm time/place. On se retrouve à [time] devant [place]?
- Line 6 (B): Confirm. C'est parfait! À [time] alors!

Write your script below. Then practice it until you can say it without reading.

Extension (Optional)

If you finish early:

- Add a second paragraph to your note: what you'd LIKE to do (but can't this week) and when you'd be able to do it instead. Use je voudrais + inf, mais je dois + inf. La semaine d'après, je peux + inf.
- Practice the role play with a partner or by playing both roles yourself.
- Try writing the planning exchange in a more formal register (vous forms) as if writing to a professional contact.
